

The Vidwest Digital Storytelling Workshop - Student Survey

Presented with Access Arts | June 16 - 26, 2021

VIDWEST
FILMMAKERS PROJECT

Are you a high school student passionate about filmmaking, photography, or the art of journalism? If you answered yes, then we would love to invite you to apply to our summer workshop. Vidwest seeks seven high school students for a 10 day digital media workshop at the Vidwest media center. Students will learn about digital storytelling in a close, collaborative environment with local filmmakers and produce a nonfiction story. The workshop dates are June 16 to June 26.

In order to apply please tell us a little about yourself:

1. What's your name and pronouns? _____

2. What year are you in high school? _____

3. Have you taken any classes, extracurriculars or participated in any clubs that teach any of the following (check all that apply):

Digital Photography
Video Production

Video Editing
Journalism

Broadcast Journalism
Sound Mixing/Editing

4. How familiar are you with using a smartphone camera (check one)?

VERY

MODERATE

A LITTLE

NOT AT ALL

5. How familiar are you with editing photos and/or video on a smartphone camera (check one)?

VERY

MODERATE

A LITTLE

NOT AT ALL

6. Do you own a smartphone? YES NO ---> If yes, what model _____?

7. Can you get transportation during the workshop (6/16 - 6/26)? YES NO

7. What do you like about storytelling (attach doc if more room needed)?

8. What skills are you most interested in learning (attach doc if more room needed)?

Survey responses and questions can be addressed to Access Arts by email at Shawna@schoolofservice.org. Applications are due May 1st, 2021. Please place "Vidwest Digital Storytelling Workshop" in the email title. Surveys can also be mailed to Access Arts, 1724 McAlester St, Columbia, MO 65201.